

JUTLAND JOLLIES

With a crack of thunder and a flash of lightning, a pounding of hoofs and a chant to the gods, the Grey Weird, the wizard Gorm of Mighty Gznn, created Jutland Jollies #17, copyright Glub Blub Publications.

Yes, gentlemen, we still exist. Miracles do happen--we're the living proof.

There's nothing wrong with the Dippy world that a good eight day week wouldn't cure.

The team game will not appear this issue--Nelson "misplaced" the moves. ("I set them out two days ago so I wouldn't lose them . . .")

Our cheers to America for Apollo VIII, the greatest thing to happen to the human species since Sputnik I went up in 1957.

And have you noticed the Trudeaumania sweeping the U.K. at the Commonwealth conference? You haven't? You'd better. He's your next president . . .

Those who struggled to put this ish out are:

(Wells) A Gal, hold

TURKEY: A Bul-Ser; A Gre (S) A Bul-Ser; F Aeg (S) F EMed-Ion;
(Reinhardt) F EMed-Ion

German Army Kiel is unable to retreat and is removed. So is the Austrian Army Serbia. No retreat was forwarded for the Austrian Fleet Ionian and it is therefore removed from play.

ENGLAND:	Edi, Lon	1 unit	- 2 centres	build 1
FRANCE:	3 home, Spa, Por, Bel, Liv, Kie	7	- 8	build 1
GERMANY:	Mun, Ber, Swe, Hol, Kie	4	- 4	no change
ITALY:	Nap, Rom, Ven, Tun, Vie, Tri	4	- 6	build 2
AUSTRIA:	Ser, Tri, Tyr, Bud, Ven	3	- 0	remove 3
RUSSIA:	4 home, Rum, Nor, Den, Bud	7	- 8	build 1
TURKEY:	3 home, Bul, Gre , Ser	4	- 6	build 2

England declines to build preferring to go into civil disorder. (Bill was visiting Toronto over Christmas and passed the word along from PM Burke. He also said "Death to the French!") France built a fleet in Brest; Russia built a fleet in St. Pete (north coast); Italy built a fleet in Naples and a fleet in Rome and Turkey built a Fleet in Symrna and an Army in Constantinople. Austria removed all her units.

That was quite a round.

"If bad institutions and bad men can be got rid of only by killing, then the killing must be done." This is the John Boardman thesis for solving political disputes, although the quote is not from him. It was written by Hearst in his New York Journal in 1901.

Boardman has long advocated political murder--he calls it such things as "counter-attack" and "execution", but those who still speak the English language will call it murder.

He also enjoys historical parallels. There are none quite so beautiful as the one that can be drawn between the Boardman of the '60's and the Hearst of the turn of the century. (over)

Hearst ran a , sensationalist, fact distorting rag called the New York Journal. Boardman runs a , sensationalist, fact distorting rag called Graustark.

The opening quote (and numerous others) decorated Hearst publications just before the murder of McKinley. Boardman advocated murdering not just his enemies, but those connected with them as well, shortly before the Kennedy and following assassinations took place. His reasoning was the same--the right of revolution of oppressed peoples.

Hearst believed in a primitive sort of socialism, while Boardman believes in a primitive variety of Marxism socialist materialism.

Hearst swallowed political garbage whole, and was politically highly irrational. Judge Boardman yourself: "The CIA . . . may well have been involved in the first Kennedy assassination, but preposterous reports of its pervasiveness and insidiousness can be dismissed out of hand." That, believe it or not, is, as Boardman would say--SIC.

As a last thought I'm wondering what happened to Boardman's 1960 pledge to leave the United States should Richard Nixon be elected president . . . ?

"And we are here as on a darkling plain swept with confused alarms of struggle and flight where ignorant armies clash by night"

"Till the war drums throbbed no longer,
And the battle flags were furled,
in the Parliament of Man, the Federation of the World"
